COMMUNICATIONS:

Mayor Howard followed up on Officer Assist of the Enon Police department; a comment from Chris Price at last council meeting. Enon PD will assist with the Fire and EMS if needed. Enon PD did assist to a call in Holiday Valley and were dispatched to the area for assist.

REPORTS:

Administrator Ross reported the Historical Society has requested to close S. Pleasant Street for the Apple Butter Festival; being open to local traffic only. Conversation ensued with Council and the decision to close the street is denied. Council states the closure of S. Pleasant St. is not necessary and the Enon Police Department has the authority to close and direct traffic if the need arises. The cost for the 2016 street paving project is a little higher than expected. Admin Ross will review the funds and bring back to Council for a motion if money needs to be moved within the street funds. The hydrant flushing schedule is a week behind due to a water leak and the preparation of the sanitary sewer inspection from the EPA. Admin Ross reported the install of more water meters. The cleaning storage tank project will be delayed until next year when bids should come in at a better bid during the winter months.

Chief Wilcox Reports:

Chief Wilcox absent (personal reasons)
